What forms of writing interest you, i.e., short articles (< 2,000 words—fiction or non-fiction), novels, non-fiction how-to books, travel pieces, children's stories, science fiction/fantasy, spiritual pieces, poetry, romance, history, creative non-fiction, genealogy, etc.?

If the West Texas Writers should offer seminars or workshops, what themes/topics interest you?

Would you consider serving on or chairing a WTW Committee? Do you have any preferences? What about any special qualifications or training? If so, what are they?

Would you be willing to appear as a speaker/presenter at a future WTW meeting? What subject(s) would you plan to present? How much time, A/V equipment, or special facilities do you need?

Do you personally know other authors and/or writing professionals who would be willing to speak to the WTW organization at future meetings, and would you be able to contact those persons? Who are these individuals and what subject(s) would they likely choose to speak about?

NOTE: The West Texas Writers normally meet the first Saturday of each month (September—May), starting at 2:00 p.m. Call 432.634.0139 for the next WTW meeting location. Annual dues are $20/person. West Texas Writers P.O. Box 51083 Midland, TX 79710
